My dear Mr Richardson &c.

I hope you will kindly find some opportunity of telling me if I can do a thing or two during my visit
to your capital shortly

You know Dorothea and I will be kindly consulted by the Princess for final details of Mr K.O. Gallaway's Sketch whether any & what return is to be made to celebrate the occasion? Mrs James was also to be consulted by Her Highness for a certain number of tickets

Yours sincerely

GENL. & REV. SECRETARIAT,

Bangalore, 12th Nov 191 8.

My Dear Sir

Many thanks for your kind letter of date, re: celebrations. The suggestions you have made are quite suitable. Sometime after I wrote to you my first letter, we got a communication from the Residency in accordance with which tomorrow has been declared a holiday and some improvised celebrations have been suggested

I trust you have received the letter and will take suitable action. Since there are to be further celebrations at a later date, we may perhaps reserve elaborate rejoicings for that occasion, and confine ourselves tomorrow to some simple but tangible demonstration of public rejoicing on the conclusion of this terrible war

Yours sincerely,

Submitted to His Highness.

Paper under disposal

The accompanying papers relate to the celebrations in the State on account of the signing of the Armistice with Germany.

2. The First Assistant to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore having in his demi-official letter of the 12th instant intimated that an Armistice had been signed with Germany with effect from 11 a.m. on the 11th November 1918, necessary orders were issued declaring the 13th instant to be a Public Holiday throughout the State and suggesting such immediate celebrations as could be improvised on that date.

3. As regards further celebrations at a later date, the First Assistant to the Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore forwarded a copy of a Clear the Line Telegram No.1999, Public, dated the 13th November 1918, from the Government of India, stating that 27th November would be declared a Public Holiday throughout India in celebration of the Armistice.

4. In view of the urgency of the matter necessary orders declaring the 27th November as a Public Holiday throughout the State also and directing celebrations in a fitting manner on that date were issued and the Residency informed of the action taken.

5. But an official communication was subsequently received from the Residency that the 7th December 1918 had been fixed as the day of observance so far as the Civil and Military Station was concerned. In order that our celebrations may also take place on the same date, a Gazette Extraordinary has been issued that the celebrations should take place on 7th December and declaring it as a holiday in lieu of 27th November 1918. The entire papers on the subject are now submitted for the kind perusal of His Highness the Maharaja.

ROUTINE NOTES.

[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

NOTE

Subject. Special thanks-giving services and pujas to be held in all Temples and Mosques on Wednesday the 27th. November 1918 in celebration of the Armistice.

The Government Order No.8989-9002 P.P.136-18-9 dated 19th. Nov. 18 directing that such services should be held does not make any provision for meeting the incidental cost.

2 It has always been the practice for Government to provide an allotment from the State funds when-ever special services of the kind are directed to be held. As for instance

(i) On the occasion of the Diamond Jubilee of the Queen Empress of India in 1897 a sum of Rs 1000/ was sanctioned and distributed as follows.-

Bangalore
Mysor	Rs 200/-	each
Other Dts.	Rs 100/-	"

(ii) On the occasion of the Coronation of Their Majesties King Edward, VII, and Queen Alexandra a

a sum of Rs 1000/_ was sanctioned.

Bangalore &
Mysore Dts Rs 200/- each.
Other Dts. 100/-

(iii) On the occasion of the Coronation Durbar of His Majesty King George. V. at Delhi on 12 th. December 1911, a sum of Rs 500/_ was sanctioned,

Bangalore & Mysore
Dts. Rs 100/_ each
Other Dts. 50/_

3. I think that a sum of at least Rs 500/_ may have to be sanctioned from the State funds as on the last occasion of the Delhi Durbar. As there is very little time to spare and instructions to the Districts have to issue early, I request that the sanction of Government to the expenditure may be obtained and communicated if possible before tomorrow evening. I may state in this connection that the Departmental provision of Rs 500/- a year for meeting such extraordinary contingencies has

MESSAGE.

I desire on this day of universal rejoicing to address a special message to my beloved people in Mysore.

We are celebrating to-day the complete and glorious victory ~~with~~ which Great Britain and her Allies have won ~~over~~ under a Divine Providence against a powerful and ruthless foe whose avowed object was to crush the liberty of Europe under the heel of a Military autocracy. I ask you to join in the rejoicing of the whole British Empire over the triumph of the sacred cause of freedom and justice

His Gracious Majesty the King Emperor and his illustrious Consort who have set, throughout the War, a magnificient example of courage, ~~endurance,~~ sympathy and patriotism to all their subjects should be especially in our thoughts to-day

At this time when my people are saddened by the terrible ravages of sickness, their hearts may well turn in deepest sympathy to the many thousands of sorrowing parents, wives and children whom the War has bereaved. May they be consoled by the thought that the sacrifice which their dead heroes offered for their Country was not made in vain and that "their name liveth for ever more".

We should always remember, with admiration and gratitude, the ~~wonderful courage~~ heroism and endurance displayed throughout the War by the ~~heroic~~ sailors and soldiers of the British Empire and we may reflect with special pride that India has played a noble part in the great struggle on almost every front, and has sent her sons in thousands to fight and die as brothers in arms, with the soldiers of Great Britain and her Allies. I am proud to think that our own Mysore Troops played their part, however small, ~~have fought~~ with gallantry and distinction and have helped to cement the bond of ~~loyalty~~ affection and gratitude which has, for over a century, united Mysore to the British Government perhaps more closely than any other Indian State.

Let us all earnestly pray that the occasion of [illegible]- lities which we celebrate to-day may be the [illegible] of a just and abiding peace and of an era of ~~progress and~~ prosperity and happiness, throughout the world.

18th November 1918

Dear Mr.Puttanna Chetty,

I was present today at a meeting in the Residency called to arrange for a celebration of the cessation of hostilities on the 27th instant as suggested by the Government of India.

The 27th November was found to be very inconvenient to many on account of its clashing with the dates of some of the Madras Presidency Examinations. The 7th December was agreed to be a better day. The Resident will wire to Madras and if they agree that the day (27th) is inconvenient the date will be changed.

A salute of 101 guns will be given and Committees are appointed to arrange for feeding the poor and distributing clothing, also for giving a treat to all School children. There will be all kinds of sports, displays and amusements on the Maidan, and fireworks and illuminations after dark. The Government of India has been asked to sanction an expenditure of Rs.10,000/- & considerable other sums, Rs.5000 from the Municipality, about Rs.2000 from the Military Department and private funds are expected

I asked if their arrangements included the City and was clearly told they did not.

I think it will be adviable for us of the City to begin as soon as possible to arrange for our programme. I feel sure Government will contribute liberally and this with contributions from "Municipal" and private sources will enable us to do something worthy of the occasion.

It will not be wise to attempt to have celebration on the same day as the C & M Station, but we ought to get things into shape as soon as possible

I am sorry that I am so closely tied all through this month with my Committee work but I will do what I can to assist you.

Yours

REJOICINGS IN THE CITY

At the instance of the City Municipality, a large number of Municipal Councillors and important citizens assembled last evening at the Fort Gate. The Honorary President of the Municipality arrived at 5-45 P.M. Within the short space of time at his disposal, Mr.Irwin, Director of Boy Scouts, had mustered a respectable number of Boy Scouts with their flags and other insignia. At 6 P.M. a monster procession, headed by a band, left the Fort Gate, the Boy Scouts carrying a portrait of Their Imperial Majesties, the King Emperor and the Queen Empress. As the procession, led by the President and Councillors approached the market square, the spectacle was truly imposing, with numerous Washington Lights. The party passed through the Dodpet and Chowk, gaining strength at every step. By the time the procession debouched into the circle near the Queen's Statue, it had assumed enormous proportions. Perfect order was maintained, and the largest number of the City processionists were conducted to a point of vantage opposite to the statue. The Durbar illuminated the circle. The Dewan of Mysore arrived at 7-15 P.M. and, shortly after, the Hon'ble the British Resident with the General Officer Commanding, arrived at the Statue. On behalf of the people of the City, Dewan Bahadur K.P.Puttanna Chetty, C.I.E., expressed to the Hon'ble the Resident, their heartfelt satisfaction at the termination of the war after a series of unparallelled victories by the Allies.

The City, throughout was decorated with flags, buntings and festoons. On every side were numerous signs of popular rejoicings. In the night, there was an illumination on a large scale throughout the City. There is nothing but praise to God on everybody's lips and pride at the mighty doings of the Allies in which Mysore has taken no inconspicuous a part.

VICTORY REJOICINGS.

The City public celebrated victory in a fitting manner. The prominent citizens, headed by Dewan Bahadur K.P.Puttanna Chetty, C.I.E., assembled in the well illuminated temple of SRI RAMESVARASWAMY in Chamarajpet, where Mr.H.Ramiah retired Under Secretary and a lay trustee of the temple, had promptly made arrangements to celebrate the joyous event on Tuesday evening itself. Prayers were offered for the continued glory of Great Britain and Her Allies and for the prosperity of their Majesties and their Highnesses of Mysore. May the Royal Families be ever knit together for the peace and properity of the world. Pandit Ramasesha Sastri spoke eloquently on the occasion.

From

Major E. H. S. JAMES,
FIRST ASSISTANT to the RESIDENT in MYSORE.

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Dated Bangalore, 20th November 1918

Sir,

I am directed to state that under instructions from the Government of India, Saturday the 7th December 1918, will be declared a Public Holiday in the Civil & Military Station of Bangalore under the Negotiable Instruments Act in celebration of the Armistice. The Government of India suggest that local bodies and Public spirited individuals might be encouraged to celebrate the occasion by feeding the poor, organising athletic sports and fêtes for children doing honour to soldiers wounded or otherwise who have served at the front, and, if possible, by illuminations and fireworks and in other ways that may suggest themselves.

2. I am to express the hope that the Durbar will kindly

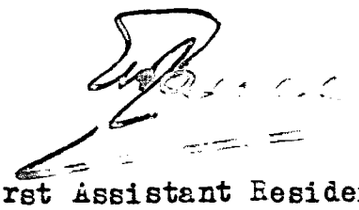
kindly co-operate in the matter.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,



First Assistant Resident.

My dear Sir,

The other day when at Bangalore 27th instant was mentioned as the day set apart for Armistice Celebrations. It was mentioned then that the Functions had been postponed to the 7th of December instead. Further reliable notifications have been received all over announcing the 27th as "Celebration" day. Orders have also been issued to the Talukas to that effect. I request the favour of being informed whether we are to hold our celebrations on the 27th as now ordered or postpone it to the 7th

S i r,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No. G.8989-9002 dated 19th November 1918 directing that the signing of the Armistice should be celebrated in a fitting manner throughout the State. I have the honour to request that the Government may be pleased to sanction a grant of Rs. 150/- for the District Head Quarter Town and Rs. 50/- for each of the Taluk Head Quarters from the State grant and a similar sum from the funds at the credit of the several Municipalities

If this important event is to be celebrated in a fitting manner the amounts now prayed for are necessary to carry out the several items enumerated in the Government Order.

Under present condition it does not appear possible to expect public subscriptions. Further this event was already celebrated in some of the places in this District out of funds raised from local people.

The Municipalities concerned will be asked to contribute half the cost of the expenditure and the formal approval of the respective Municipal Councils will be obtained later on and forwarded to Government.

EXTRAORDINARY.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

BANGALORE, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1918.

Message from His Highness the Maharaja to His Subjects.

I desire on this day of universal rejoicing to address a special message to my beloved people in Mysore.

We are celebrating to-day the complete and glorious victory which Great Britain and her Allies have won under a Divine Providence against a powerful and ruthless foe whose avowed object was to crush the liberty of Europe under the heel of a Military autocracy. I ask you to join in the rejoicing of the whole British Empire over the triumph of the sacred cause of freedom and justice.

His Gracious Majesty the King Emperor and His Illustrious Consort who have set, throughout the war, a magnificent example of courage, sympathy and patriotism to all their subjects should be specially in our thoughts to-day.

At this time when my people are saddened by the terrible ravages of sickness, their hearts may well turn in deepest sympathy to the many thousands of sorrowing parents, wives and children whom the war has bereaved. May they be consoled by the thought that the sacrifice which their dead heroes offered for their country was not made in vain, and that "their name liveth for ever more."

We should always remember with admiration and gratitude the heroism and endurance displayed throughout the war by the sailors and soldiers of the British Empire, and we may reflect with special pride that India has played a noble part in the great struggle on almost every front, and has sent her sons in thousands to fight and die as brothers in arms, with the soldiers of Great Britain and her Allies. I am proud to think that our own Mysore Troops played their part, however small, with gallantry and distinction, and have helped to cement the bond of affection and gratitude which has, for over a century, united Mysore to the British Government perhaps more closely than any other Indian State.

Let us all earnestly pray that the cessation of hostilities which we celebrate to-day, may be the fore-runner of a just and abiding peace, and of an era of prosperity and happiness throughout the world.

Seal.

KRISHNARAJA WADIYAR.
